

Social and Personal

THE engagement of Miss Mary Royter, of Norfolk, to William H. White, Jr., the son of President William H. White, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad and Mrs. White, who have their home in Richmond, has just been announced.

Mrs. Richard D. Cooke, of Norfolk, entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. William Stamps Royter, and the engagement of Miss Royter and Mr. White was announced during the course of the luncheon.

Table decorations in white chrysanthemums and ferns developed the color scheme of green and white. Place cards were inscribed with miniatures of bride and groom-to-be.

The wedding date has not yet been made public.

Smith-Renolds.
The wedding of Miss Caroline Gordon Renolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Renolds, of 202 East Franklin Street, to Hiram Moore Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith, was celebrated in St. James Episcopal church at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Rev. William Meado Clark, D. D., rector of the church, officiating.

Miss Nellie Renolds, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Gordon Smith, the groom's brother, was best man.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen were: Miss Roberta Trigg; Miss Sarah Hamilton, of Petersburg; Miss May Carmichael, Miss Elsie Lindsay, Miss Ella Buek; Francis Cox, of Penola, N. C.; George Forsythe, of New York; Gaylord Clarke, of Baltimore; Robert Pollard, Stuart Christian and Addison Reynolds.

The church was thronged with a large crowd of elegantly attired and fashionable people from in and out of town.

Miss Renolds, since her debut, made here several winters ago, has been a house on West Avenue, the social life of Richmond's younger set.

The ceremony at the church was followed by a reception at the Renolds home to the bridal party and intimate friends of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left last evening for their wedding trip and will occupy a house on West Avenue when they return. Mr. Smith is a member of the Richmond bar and is well known in its social and country clubs.

Waller-Eaves.
The marriage of Miss Mary Emma Eaves to Frank S. Waller was quietly celebrated at 1307 West Avenue, the Rev. Ryland Knight, D. D., officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Waller will be at home to their friends at 917 West Marshall Street after November 10.

Walker-Seibutz.
The wedding of Miss Ella V. Schultz, of Scottsville, to T. Walker, of Bedford City, was celebrated in the parlors of Centenary Methodist Church on the morning of November 1, the Rev. J. N. Latham, D. D., officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left immediately after the ceremony for their future home at Bedford City.

Miss Powell's Dance.
Miss Ruby Powell was hostess of a Halloween dance last evening, given in the Crenshaw house, on the corner of Adams and Main Street.

The rooms and hallways were tastefully decorated with pumpkin heads, autumn leaves and apples hung from strings, and a number of Japanese lanterns furnished illumination. There were about fifteen couples present, and to add to the weirdness of the picture, the ladies wore white dominoes and masks. At 10 o'clock all masks were removed, and the jolly party danced until 1 A. M. The hostess's mother, Mrs. W. L. Powell, and Mrs. Felthouse assisted in receiving.

Alumnae to Meet.
The alumnae of Pegram's Seminary will hold its regular meeting Saturday, November 5, at the home of the President, Miss Elmore Miller, 728 West Main Street, from 4 to 8 o'clock. All former students are asked to attend.

Miss Whiting to Be Presented.
Miss Julia H. Whiting, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting, formerly of Virginia, but now of Washington, D. C., will be presented to society at a tea to be given by Mrs. Whiting on December 8, at their residence.

Kaufmann & Co.

New Chiffon Tucked Waists

Mounted on Persian, fancy lace yoke and cuffs, black and colors; special..... $5.00

dence in New Hampshire Avenue, Washington.

Miss Whiting is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Whiting. Her sister, Miss Alice Whiting, was introduced last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Whiting and the Misses Whiting spent the summer at the Virginia Hot Springs, where they had a cottage for the season.

Pickett-Buchanan Banquet.

Pickett-Buchanan Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of Norfolk, is holding a banquet at the Hotel Norfolk, Norfolk, for the benefit of the relief fund to be raised by the Virginia chapters for Confederate women unable to take care of themselves. To-day has been set apart for the rendition of Confederate songs and fancy dances extemporized by a number of Norfolk's popular artists.

Biggs-Pfeiffer.
Rev. Henry C. Pfeiffer, of South Richmond, a brother of the bride, officiated Monday at the wedding in Petersburg of Miss Amelia Pfeiffer, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Pfeiffer, to Robert Munford Biggs, also of Petersburg.

The bride was becomingly attired in a blue broadcloth suit, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. There were no attendants. The ceremony took place before a bank of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Biggs left for Norfolk, where they will take the boat for New York, Niagara Falls and Canada. They will be at home after November 15 at 1714 Main Street, Petersburg.

Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Pfeiffer, of South Richmond; Mrs. Ada Biggs and daughter, of Montvale; Mrs. E. M. Dyer, of Roanoke; a sister of the bride; Mrs. Elizabeth Urick, of Roanoke.

An interesting wedding was tendered the bride by her sister, Mrs. P. C. Johnson, at her home, 1413 Church Street.

Reception in Mansion.
Governor William Hodges Mann and Mrs. Mann gave a reception last evening, at which the visiting members of the United States and friends accompanying them were guests of honor. Many Richmond women helped to render the evening most enjoyable to visitors and others present. The Governor and his wife received with their usual hospitality.

To-day the visitors will be tendered a luncheon in the Valentine Museum, from 1 to 4 P. M., and be given a reception at the Confederate Museum from 3 to 5 P. M.

The Horse Show Party.
Every year a party of Richmond people attend a horse show in New York to attend the Horse Show. Among those leaving next Saturday for the annual trip are: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Starke, Miss Marie Curtis, Captain William H. Curtis, Miss Maud Starke, Mr. and Mrs. E. Seal, Miss Martha Virginia Seal, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bauer, V. Hechler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Midyette, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Blasingame, Captain and Mrs. Morgan R. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carneal, Mrs. E. T. Robinson, Mrs. Robert S. Crump, child and family, Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, and two children, Harvey Smith, Mrs. H. T. Tritton, Mrs. R. T. Tritton, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Catlett, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thalhimer, Miss Lyle Gary, Miss Kate Gary, Miss Elina Gary, Miss Annie Duval, George E. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. George M. W. Ashby, S. Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Omohundro.

Visitors To Be Welcomed.
Visitors to Sheltering Arms Free Hospital to-day will be welcomed by a receiving committee of the board, who will be at the hospital throughout the day, this being the annual donation date. The members of the board will be glad to have all interested in its work to come to the hospital and be shown over it.

In and Out of Town.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Briggs, of Buffalo, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dickinson, at 2233 West Grace Street.

Mrs. Ernest B. Crawford, of Harrisonburg, Va., formerly Miss Bessie Rountree, of Richmond, is slowly improving at St. Luke's Hospital.

The officers of Fort Myer, Va., gave the first dance of this season Monday night, with Halloween decorations and music by the cavalry band. Mrs. Thomas Brander and Miss Elizabeth Brander, of Richmond, are guests at Fort Myer of Chaplain W. W. Brander, U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jordan, who spent last week in Richmond, have returned to their home in Harrisonburg, Va.

Captain Harry Coates, U. S. A., Mrs. Coates, their little son and their friend, Miss Marguerite Taylor, of Norfolk, who have been abroad since the spring, have sailed for New York, Captain Coates at one time lived in Richmond, and his wife and Mrs. Coates have many Richmond friends.

Miss Emma Clarke, of Richmond, is a member of a house party at Fort Myer and the guest of Lieutenant Shepherd, U. S. A., and Mrs. Shepherd.

Rev. George Green, who supplied the pulpit of the Second Baptist Church on Sunday last, has returned to his home in Clifton Forge.

Miss Mary Frothinger, who went from St. Luke's Hospital to Newport News, has sufficiently improved to return to her home in Pulaski.

Miss Kate Williams will represent the Mothers' Association of Washington Street School, Bristol, at the State school conference meeting in Richmond the last week of November.

Miss Frances Myers and Miss Henrietta Tucker, of Norfolk, gave a jolly Halloween party at their cottage, Virginia Beach, Saturday, November 23.

James J. van Alen, of New York, has sufficiently recovered from injuries sustained by a fall from his horse at Hot Springs, Va., to sail for Europe this week. Colonel John Jacob Astor and his son, Vincent, sailed by the Kaiser Wilhelm II. yesterday.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. David G. McIntosh, Jr., of Baltimore, for a dance to be given on Tuesday, November 15, at Dunbar Farm, in honor of Miss Isabel Riemmen Thom, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riemmen Thom, of the distinguished Eastern Shore Virginia family of that name.

Mrs. W. H. Bramblitt, of Pulaski, is visiting friends in Richmond and Farmville.

The wedding of Miss Sue Royter to John Easton, of Winchester, was celebrated last night. Professor Thomas Beardsworth, of Lynchburg, attended the wedding.

T. Maxey Detrick left Richmond yesterday for Asheville, N. C., where he will reside in future.

Miss Elizabeth Wines left yesterday to attend the annual alumnae meeting of the Academy of the Visitation, Mount de Sales, Catonsville, Md., and will be the guest for several days in Baltimore of her aunt, Mrs. Howard P. Page, formerly of Richmond.

Mrs. L. L. Young, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Monument Avenue for several days, has returned to Keysville.

Davis-Walpole.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
A wedding of interest throughout the State was that this evening of Miss Amye Dorothy Walpole, daughter of Claire Walpole and Hugh W. Davis, of Norfolk. The bride is a lineal descendant of Horace Walpole, and a niece of the present Earl of Norfolk.

The ceremony took place at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Hugh T. Nelson, 205 High Street, and was performed by the Rev. Harry B. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums and evergreens, the color scheme being white and green. Miss Mary E. Fleming, of the Plains, Fauquier county, was maid of honor, and Richard H. Burroughs, of Norfolk, best man. The bride was given away by her cousin, Dr. Hugh T. Nelson.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over satin, trimmed with silver, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor's gown was of green chiffon, over white satin, and she carried a bunch of mignonette. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left early in the night for an extended wedding trip. They will be at home after November 25, in Norfolk, where the groom is engaged in the practice of law with his father, Hugh C. Davis.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Virginia Law School, class of 1908, and while in the university took an important part in college activities.

Among those present at the wedding were: Hugh C. Davis, of Norfolk, father of the groom; Mrs. Willson Chamberlain, of San Diego, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Davis, of Farmville; Miss Virginia Gordon, of Norfolk; Miss Shackelford, of Orange; Mrs. Mosby, Miss Alice Clarke and W. H. Crenshaw, of Lynchburg; Lewis T. Crenshaw, of New York; Judge B. D.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.
Congressman Carlin to Address Voters. Gift to Miss Parker—Other News Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 3.—Hon. C. C. Carlin, member of Congress from the Eighth District, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the voters of King George county at King George, Courthouse here, Monday, November 7, county day. Mr. Carlin has no opposition for re-election from any party.

Governor E. B. Smith has designated Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Richmond, to preside over the Circuit Court of Stafford county for the November term, which opens Monday, November 7.

Judge J. E. Mason has returned to his home here, and is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent some time ago in a Richmond sanatorium. He expects to be able to resume his duties by December 1.

Miss Parker, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Mary Washington Hospital here in order to take a needed rest, was recently invited before leaving for her home this week with a purse containing $60 in gold as a token of the esteem in which she is held by the women of the Hospital Association.

Chas. W. Edgington has been appointed by the Circuit Court a trustee of the Methodist Church, in a one of the vacancies caused by the death of Jas. T. Lowery.

Mrs. S. W. Somerville fell down the steps at her residence here and was badly injured, but is improving.

Hon. W. A. Jones, member of Congress from the district of Southwestern Virginia, where he had been making an active campaign in the interest of H. C. Stuart, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, was one of the friends called on Mr. Jones at the hotel before the speaking. He was greeted at the courthouse by a large and representative gathering of citizens. Mr. Jones discussed the present political issues in a most entertaining, instructive and forceful manner. His treatment of the tariff question was masterly, and he made many strong points on other subjects pertaining to this campaign. Jones was one of the strongest speakers in the State, and his audience was well pleased with his speech.

Umbrellas

With Mission handles, full size. A Gloria Silk Umbrella, with best steel frame, worth $2.00, for..... $1.69

White, of Princess Anne county; Hammond Johnson and Joseph B. Bldgood, of Norfolk; Duncan Curry, of Staunton; Dr. and Mrs. Alderman and Professor and Mrs. W. M. Lile, of the University of Virginia; Captain and Mrs. Micajah Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville.

McClung-Harman.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., November 2.—A marriage of interest to a wide circle of moral Episcopal Church, of Lexington, and Rockbridge was that of Miss Lucinda Harman to Dr. Oscar H. McClung, which was solemnized this evening at 8 o'clock in R. E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, of Lexington. The church was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white crepe, metecor, with chiffon train, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Caroline Virginia Harman, was maid of honor, and she wore pale yellow chiffon over yellow satin, trimmed in opal passementerie, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mattie Harman, sister of the bride, and Miss Alexander, of Lexington. The groom wore a white messaline, and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

The ushers were six brothers of the bride: Michael, of Lexington; Alexander and Arthur C. Harman, of Richmond; George C. and Warwick C. Harman, of Jacksonville, Fla.; and Douglas C. Harman, of Washington and Lee University.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Asher W. Harman, State Treasurer of Virginia. The groom, Rev. W. Cosby Pell, was the celebrant, and J. H. Eley, of Washington and Lee University, officiated at the organ and played the wedding marches from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn.

The groom was attended by his brother, Dr. McClung, of Houston, Tex., as best man.

After a trip North, Dr. McClung and his bride will be at home in Fairfield, Md.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chamberlayne, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harman, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Mary Larew and Mr. John Larew, Augusta county; Miss Louise McClung, sister of the groom, Fairfield.

Gilmer-Mish.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Staunton, Va., November 2.—At Bethel Presbyterian Church, Green Hill, at 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Anna Mish was married to A. Gray Gilmer, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. D. Waller, of Mt. Sidney.

Miss Virginia Mish, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Henry Hall Mish, brother of the bride, best man. Ushers were R. W. H. Mish, brother of the bride; Dr. Templeton Adair, of Harrisonburg; W. A. Lilley, of Greenville, and J. Will Buchanan, of Townsboro.

The church was beautifully decorated. The bride wore a suit of white chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a white suit, and carried a white chrysanthemum.

The groom was educated at the University of Virginia, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter, and is a young attorney of Bristol, Va.

House guests at the Mish home for the wedding were: Miss Minna Walpole, of Portsmouth; Miss Lucy Glasgow, of Buena Vista, Va.; Miss Nettie Massie, of Tyro, Va.; Miss Lillian, of Staunton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Tannehill, of Staunton, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gilmer, of Pulaski.

Corn-Raper.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., November 2.—Dean Corna, a mining engineer of New York City, and Miss Hazel Raper were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John C. Raper, here to-day by Rev. J. C. Raper, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.
Congressman Carlin to Address Voters. Gift to Miss Parker—Other News Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 3.—Hon. C. C. Carlin, member of Congress from the Eighth District, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the voters of King George county at King George, Courthouse here, Monday, November 7, county day. Mr. Carlin has no opposition for re-election from any party.

Governor E. B. Smith has designated Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Richmond, to preside over the Circuit Court of Stafford county for the November term, which opens Monday, November 7.

Judge J. E. Mason has returned to his home here, and is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent some time ago in a Richmond sanatorium. He expects to be able to resume his duties by December 1.

Miss Parker, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Mary Washington Hospital here in order to take a needed rest, was recently invited before leaving for her home this week with a purse containing $60 in gold as a token of the esteem in which she is held by the women of the Hospital Association.

Chas. W. Edgington has been appointed by the Circuit Court a trustee of the Methodist Church, in a one of the vacancies caused by the death of Jas. T. Lowery.

Mrs. S. W. Somerville fell down the steps at her residence here and was badly injured, but is improving.

Hon. W. A. Jones, member of Congress from the district of Southwestern Virginia, where he had been making an active campaign in the interest of H. C. Stuart, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, was one of the friends called on Mr. Jones at the hotel before the speaking. He was greeted at the courthouse by a large and representative gathering of citizens. Mr. Jones discussed the present political issues in a most entertaining, instructive and forceful manner. His treatment of the tariff question was masterly, and he made many strong points on other subjects pertaining to this campaign. Jones was one of the strongest speakers in the State, and his audience was well pleased with his speech.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.
Congressman Carlin to Address Voters. Gift to Miss Parker—Other News Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 3.—Hon. C. C. Carlin, member of Congress from the Eighth District, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the voters of King George county at King George, Courthouse here, Monday, November 7, county day. Mr. Carlin has no opposition for re-election from any party.

Governor E. B. Smith has designated Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Richmond, to preside over the Circuit Court of Stafford county for the November term, which opens Monday, November 7.

Judge J. E. Mason has returned to his home here, and is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent some time ago in a Richmond sanatorium. He expects to be able to resume his duties by December 1.

Miss Parker, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Mary Washington Hospital here in order to take a needed rest, was recently invited before leaving for her home this week with a purse containing $60 in gold as a token of the esteem in which she is held by the women of the Hospital Association.

Chas. W. Edgington has been appointed by the Circuit Court a trustee of the Methodist Church, in a one of the vacancies caused by the death of Jas. T. Lowery.

Mrs. S. W. Somerville fell down the steps at her residence here and was badly injured, but is improving.

Hon. W. A. Jones, member of Congress from the district of Southwestern Virginia, where he had been making an active campaign in the interest of H. C. Stuart, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, was one of the friends called on Mr. Jones at the hotel before the speaking. He was greeted at the courthouse by a large and representative gathering of citizens. Mr. Jones discussed the present political issues in a most entertaining, instructive and forceful manner. His treatment of the tariff question was masterly, and he made many strong points on other subjects pertaining to this campaign. Jones was one of the strongest speakers in the State, and his audience was well pleased with his speech.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.
Congressman Carlin to Address Voters. Gift to Miss Parker—Other News Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 3.—Hon. C. C. Carlin, member of Congress from the Eighth District, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the voters of King George county at King George, Courthouse here, Monday, November 7, county day. Mr. Carlin has no opposition for re-election from any party.

Governor E. B. Smith has designated Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Richmond, to preside over the Circuit Court of Stafford county for the November term, which opens Monday, November 7.

Judge J. E. Mason has returned to his home here, and is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent some time ago in a Richmond sanatorium. He expects to be able to resume his duties by December 1.

Miss Parker, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Mary Washington Hospital here in order to take a needed rest, was recently invited before leaving for her home this week with a purse containing $60 in gold as a token of the esteem in which she is held by the women of the Hospital Association.

Chas. W. Edgington has been appointed by the Circuit Court a trustee of the Methodist Church, in a one of the vacancies caused by the death of Jas. T. Lowery.

Mrs. S. W. Somerville fell down the steps at her residence here and was badly injured, but is improving.

Hon. W. A. Jones, member of Congress from the district of Southwestern Virginia, where he had been making an active campaign in the interest of H. C. Stuart, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, was one of the friends called on Mr. Jones at the hotel before the speaking. He was greeted at the courthouse by a large and representative gathering of citizens. Mr. Jones discussed the present political issues in a most entertaining, instructive and forceful manner. His treatment of the tariff question was masterly, and he made many strong points on other subjects pertaining to this campaign. Jones was one of the strongest speakers in the State, and his audience was well pleased with his speech.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.
Congressman Carlin to Address Voters. Gift to Miss Parker—Other News Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 3.—Hon. C. C. Carlin, member of Congress from the Eighth District, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the voters of King George county at King George, Courthouse here, Monday, November 7, county day. Mr. Carlin has no opposition for re-election from any party.

Governor E. B. Smith has designated Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Richmond, to preside over the Circuit Court of Stafford county for the November term, which opens Monday, November 7.

Judge J. E. Mason has returned to his home here, and is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent some time ago in a Richmond sanatorium. He expects to be able to resume his duties by December 1.

Umbrellas

With Mission handles, full size. A Gloria Silk Umbrella, with best steel frame, worth $2.00, for..... $1.69

White, of Princess Anne county; Hammond Johnson and Joseph B. Bldgood, of Norfolk; Duncan Curry, of Staunton; Dr. and Mrs. Alderman and Professor and Mrs. W. M. Lile, of the University of Virginia; Captain and Mrs. Micajah Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville.

McClung-Harman.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., November 2.—A marriage of interest to a wide circle of moral Episcopal Church, of Lexington, and Rockbridge was that of Miss Lucinda Harman to Dr. Oscar H. McClung, which was solemnized this evening at 8 o'clock in R. E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, of Lexington. The church was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white crepe, metecor, with chiffon train, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Caroline Virginia Harman, was maid of honor, and she wore pale yellow chiffon over yellow satin, trimmed in opal passementerie, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mattie Harman, sister of the bride, and Miss Alexander, of Lexington. The groom wore a white messaline, and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

The ushers were six brothers of the bride: Michael, of Lexington; Alexander and Arthur C. Harman, of Richmond; George C. and Warwick C. Harman, of Jacksonville, Fla.; and Douglas C. Harman, of Washington and Lee University.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Asher W. Harman, State Treasurer of Virginia. The groom, Rev. W. Cosby Pell, was the celebrant, and J. H. Eley, of Washington and Lee University, officiated at the organ and played the wedding marches from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn.

The groom was attended by his brother, Dr. McClung, of Houston, Tex., as best man.

After a trip North, Dr. McClung and his bride will be at home in Fairfield, Md.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chamberlayne, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harman, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Mary Larew and Mr. John Larew, Augusta county; Miss Louise McClung, sister of the groom, Fairfield.

Gilmer-Mish.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Staunton, Va., November 2.—At Bethel Presbyterian Church, Green Hill, at 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Anna Mish was married to A. Gray Gilmer, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. D. Waller, of Mt. Sidney.

Miss Virginia Mish, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Henry Hall Mish, brother of the bride, best man. Ushers were R. W. H. Mish, brother of the bride; Dr. Templeton Adair, of Harrisonburg; W. A. Lilley, of Greenville, and J. Will Buchanan, of Townsboro.

The church was beautifully decorated. The bride wore a suit of white chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a white suit, and carried a white chrysanthemum.

The groom was educated at the University of Virginia, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter, and is a young attorney of Bristol, Va.

House guests at the Mish home for the wedding were: Miss Minna Walpole, of Portsmouth; Miss Lucy Glasgow, of Buena Vista, Va.; Miss Nettie Massie, of Tyro, Va.; Miss Lillian, of Staunton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Tannehill, of Staunton, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gilmer, of Pulaski.

Corn-Raper.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., November 2.—Dean Corna, a mining engineer of New York City, and Miss Hazel Raper were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John C. Raper, here to-day by Rev. J. C. Raper, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., November 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Warrenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Erny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, also of Fauquier county. The wedding will take place in December.

Will Make Campaign Speech at King George.